Prelude

*Call to Worship (in Unison)

We are God's church. He has given us his Word.

We come together to worship. We come together to learn from him.
He has filled us with his power. He has given us his Spirit.

We go out to bring others to him. We come together to celebrate.
He has planned for us a glorious future. We are God's church.

We go out to live our lives to please him. We come together to worship.

*Confession of Sins (in Unison)

Merciful God, as we travel the difficult paths of life, and our way forward is challenged at every turn, it is easy to forget that You are always there. We feel alone, abandoned to our fate. Forgive our preoccupation when we cry out in anguish: "What have I done to deserve this?" When we forget that you seek our salvation, not our pain. For your ways lead to life, O God, not to death. Teach us to feel your presence, and embrace your grace and mercy. Amen.

*Words of Assurance

Hear the word of God: "The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." You are forgiven!

For Our Guests

We are so thrilled to have you worship with us today. We truly hope you are encouraged and inspired to grow closer to God as we worship the true and living God together.

THEME IDEAS

As we leave the Easter - Pentecost cycle behind, we turn to the Ordinary Season on lections that are chosen chronologically, rather than thematically. Each week, the Psalm will relate to the lesson from Paul's Letters and the Gospel Lessons will take us chronologically through Matthew's account of Jesus' life and ministry. No matter how hard we try, we cannot avoid the pain and trials of life. Speaking of the trials of faith, we need the Armor of God, and we need to seek God's comfort and protection as we struggle to follow God while living with personal integrity and loyalty to those we love, and worship God.
