Prelude

*Call to Worship (Responsively)

All who need a place to belong . . .

Come join the family of God.

All who seek spiritual brothers and sisters . . .

Come join the family of God.

All who strive to grow in faith and love . . .

Come join the family of God.

*Opening Prayer

*Hymn

"Seek Ye First"

#524 BH

*Confession of Sins (in Unison)

Sovereign God, we so often lose our way. You seek to be our King - to lead us on right paths; to teach us the ways of truth and life; to shelter us from our foes, yet we look to the rulers of this earth for leadership, wisdom, and strength. You seek to be our Comforter and Shelter - to love us as our Father; yet we look elsewhere for love, compassion, and hope. Open your arms to us once more, O God. We will be your people, and you will be our God and King. Amen.

*Words of Assurance

Christ looks to each of us. As the family of God, as brothers and sisters of Christ, we are loved and forgiven by our gracious God.

THEME IDEAS

Do we put our trust in human families, in human ingenuity and cleverness, or do we put our faith in God? The children of Israel want to have a king rule them like the other nations, but God yearns to be their only ruler and king. Jesus' mother and siblings see his ministry spinning out of control and seek to rein Jesus back in, to protect him within the family, but Jesus has a larger vision, and baldly states that biology does not define family - family are all those who do the will of God. Paul reminds the church in Corinth that while our earthly bodies age and decline, our spiritual temple is being renewed daily and will last into eternity. God calls us to build things that truly last, to look beyond simple biology to find our true family, and to look beyond the outward nature of things to see God's renewal of our inner nature.
