Prelude

*Call to Worship (Responsively)

The voice of God calls us to worship, and we cry:

Glory!

The voice of Christ calls us to worship, and we cry:

Glory! Glory!

The voice of the Spirit calls us to worship, and we cry:

Glory! Glory! Glory!

*Hymn

*Confession of Sins (in Unison)

God, you come to us in a blaze of glory, but feeling unworthy of your presence, we cower and hide. You invite us to become one with Christ, but in our fear of the demand to take up our cross, we pull back from you. You manifest yourself to us in so many ways, but we have rationalized our refusal to follow your ways. Forgive us, Holy One. Come to us once again, we pray. Open our eyes to your glory. Open our hearts to your love. Open our minds to your divine presence in our lives. Amen.

*Words of Assurance

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. You are forgiven.

*Charge & Benediction

We have experienced the glory and majesty of God. We have been born again in the love of Christ Jesus who offers us nothing less than eternal life. We have been transformed by the witness of the Holy Spirit.

Now go forth to proclaim justice. Go forth to offer hope to those for whom hope has died. Go forth to testify to the Spirit of love. Go in peace to serve God and your neighbor. Amen.

THEME IDEAS

Trinity Sunday is a day we celebrate the power and majesty of the Lord God, made intimate and incarnate through God's own Son, as revealed to us through the witness of the Holy Spirit. I love the triple punch of the Trinity! In the diversity of the Three-in-One, we have multiple lenses through which each of us can see the Divine and hear the voice of God calling us. The most amazing miracle of the Trinity is that even in the face of our overwhelming inadequacies, each of us is called by God, loved by Christ, and equipped by the Spirit. What else can we do but respond, "I'm here; send me!"
