

PRELUDE

WELCOME AND CALL TO WORSHIP

One: Let us all join together in singing the Caribbean hymn, "Halle, Halle, Hallelujah."

SONG Halle, Halle, Hallelujah

PRAYER OF PRAISE

One: Let us join together with the islands in a prayer of praise by responding: Our God,

All: We give you praise.

One: ... the beauty of our waters, the face of a baby and the smiling eyes of an aged woman. Our God,

All: We give you praise.

One: ...your mercy is as boundless as the sands, your grace surrounds us like the waters of the sea. Our God,

All: We give you praise.

One: ...we exalt your name for every opportunity given to us to minister to the poor and to wash the feet of the weary. Our ,

All: We give you praise.

One: ...you have journeyed with us and our ancestors over the centuries. Our God,

All: We give you praise.

One: ...We give thanks in Long Island and everywhere. Our God,

All: We give you praise.

One: ...How deep and radical is your love for us! Our God,

All: We give you praise.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

One: ...So often, we try to direct it away from those we do not like, cannot love or choose not to love.

ALL: Forgive us, Lord.

One: ...Forgive us when we destroy the environment that we, together with our visitors, should be responsible for preserving.

ALL: Keep us from destroying your wonderful creation.

One: ...Open our eyes to those who are in need of a gentle touch, a listening ear, a word of comfort or a healing presence.

All: Jesus, we are amazed by you. How deep and radical is your love for us! Teach us how to be more like you, and to model your radical love and gracious hospitality to all of your children. Amen.

One: ...Let us repeat our song of praise, "Halle, Halle, Hallelujah."
