Prelude

Call to Worship (Responsively)

Look, here is our God, the One we have waited for.

Let us be glad and rejoice in our salvation.

Come see abundant blessings, come! let us worship the Lord.

We enjoy the blessings of the Lord and His presence.

Opening Prayer

Hymn "How Great Thou Art" #6 BH

Confession of Sins (in Unison)

O Lord, You know well our grief and our longing to see You face to face.

O how we wish You would come down and save us. In our pain, we have grown impatient. In our sorrow, we have doubted the depth of Your love. Forgive us, patient ONE, when we forget that Jesus wept at the death of his friend, Lazarus. Renew our faithfulness, Holy ONE, when like Mary and Martha before us, we despair of tasting the joy of eternal life. We need Your grace to complete us. We need Your love to make us whole. Amen.

Words of Assurance

The ONE who shows us a vision of a new heaven and a new earth is faithful.

The ONE who prepares for us a banquet of rich food and fine wines, will wipe away every tear.

The King of glory has come to bring us salvation.

Charge & Benediction

With clean hands and pure hearts, hold fast to the faith of the saints who went before us.
With hopeful hearts and expectant spirits, receive the blessings of our gracious host.
With Christ as our door to eternal life, find the courage to open the door and go in.
In our living and in our dying, we belong to God.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you. Amen.

THEME IDEAS

All Saints Day celebrates those who have died in the faith. Today's scripture readings reference the end time when there will be a new heaven and a new earth - a time when God will wipe away every tear. It is a time to celebrate the heavenly banquet, a banquet with rich food and well-aged wine. It is a time when weeping and mourning will be no more. The story of Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead is a sign of God's power, even over death itself. The message is clear and unambiguous: The saints of God have nothing to fear from the grave.
