Prelude

Call to Worship (Responsively)

Behold, the resurrection claims us!

We want to see with our eyes and touch with our hands the marks of God's sacrificial love.

Behold, the Spirit calls to us!

We want to know the peace of those who believe where they have not seen.

The ancestors sing to us: Christ is risen! God is light! Live in this light!

Alleluia! Christ is risen indeed! Amen!

Opening Prayer

Hymn "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee" #13 BH

Confession of Sins (in Unison)

Merciful God, we are humbled by the lives of the early disciples. We have forgotten how to face the cries of the needy, for there are so many. We have failed to place our trust in your sovereign love. Forgive us, and all who claim to follow you. Fill us with your transforming Spirit, and free us with your grace, in the name of the risen one. Amen.

Words of Assurance

Sisters and brothers, hear the good news: The love and mercy of God have been revealed in the cross and the empty tomb. In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

THEME IDEAS

These scriptures overflow with witness to the resurrection of Jesus Christ. In the montage of witness stories, we find the unbelievable generosity of an early church community that echoes God's joy in unity. The Gospel contains even greater disbelief in the story of Thomas. This is a week to proclaim that doubt is a part of faith. Christ does what is needed so that we can see, touch, and taste the power of God. This power not only raises the dead, it empowers the believer to a life of conviction and generosity. Resurrection changes us.
