Prelude

Call to Worship (responsively)

As God called to Moses from the mountain,
we are called to be God's people.

As Jesus called the disciples to climb with Him to the peak of another mountain, we are called to follow wherever He leads.

As the disciples stood in awe at the sound of God's voice,
we are called to worship in wonder and praise.

Opening Prayer

Opening Hymn "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" #167 BH

Confession of Sins (in Unison)

Holy God, though we want to walk with Moses and see Your holy radiance, we hide in the mist of our own desires, unable to perceive the presence of Your grace. While we want a world of justice and peace, we walk in clouds of selfishness, unable to share Your loving-kindness. Though we want to follow Jesus up the mountain, we cower in fear, unable to bear the light of God. Amen.

Words of Assurance

In the blazing light of God's grace, Jesus touches us to say, "Get up and do not be afraid."
In the name of Christ, all is forgiven. Amen.

THEME IDEAS

The story of Moses' mountain ascent to receive God's commandments is juxtaposed with the story of Jesus' mountain ascent when he was transfigured in the midst of his disciples. The presence of Moses and Elijah on the mountain with Jesus emphasizes his continuity with the ongoing story of God's journey with the people of God. Images of light, of the shining glory of God, suffuse today's readings. As Jesus is transfigured, his face shining like the sun, we see a new world in which God establishes justice and righteousness for all.

Lead like Jesus...

Lead to Jesus...

Be led by Jesus...
