Call to Worship (Responsively)

Come to God's house with your songs and prayers. Come to God's house with your hopes and joys.
We lift our voices to God. We bring our thanks and praise.
Come to God's house with your needs and fears. Come to God's house with your gifts and treasures.
We lay down our burdens before Christ. We offer our lives to Christ.
Come to God's house with all that you have and with all that you are.
Let us worship together this day.

☞ For Our Guests ☜

We are so thrilled to have you worship with us today. We truly hope you are encouraged and inspired to grow closer to God as we worship the true and living God together.

THEME IDEAS

The characters in today's scriptures model the value of giving all that they have – an uncommon value in today's world. Ruth gives her life and her future to her mother-in-law, as she follows Naomi back to her homeland, and then Ruth gives even her son so that Naomi may nurse and raise him as her own. In doing so, Ruth (and Naomi) give to the Hebrew people the grandfather of King David, and to Christians the ancestor of our savior Jesus. Jesus observes a poor widow who is giving all that she has to the temple treasury, and reminds us that giving everything is the blessing God seeks from us. The Psalmist reminds us that only houses (and lives) built by God will stand the test of time, and the test of worth. Giving everything we have puts us "all in." Only by doing so can we complete God's work, and be fully committed to following Christ. When we do so, the lives we build are both blessed and a blessing.
