Prelude

*Call to Worship (Responsively)

O Lord, You are God. There is no other God but You.

We renounce all that we have allowed to come between us.

O Lord, we worship You. We praise and honor Your name.

We worship You on this, Your holy day.

For Your love, for Your word, for all that You have given:

O Lord, we thank You and praise You. We love You.

*Opening Prayer

*Opening Hymn

"Seek Ye First"

#524 BH

*Confession of Sins (in Unison)

Lord, Your perfect word reveals our imperfections all too clearly. No matter how hard we strive to fulfill the requirements of Your law, we always fall short. We have forgotten that righteousness and perfection come not from rules and regulations but from faith. We have ignored the truth that Your righteousness comes from faith. Open our eyes to see that all we have accomplished is nothing compared to knowing Christ as our Lord. In the name of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

*Words of Assurance

Take heart; have faith. Press on to take hold of it, as Christ has taken hold of us. Have no fear; leave the past behind. Reach out for what lies ahead, the life to be found in Christ Jesus.

THEME IDEAS

The law of God, and what it means to truly uphold this law, is the focus of today's readings. From the time that the Lord's commandments are given to Moses and the people of Israel, the law is both a blessing to those who understand its message and a curse to those who can read it only as a set of rigid, unbending rules. Paul's letter to the Philippians reveals and clarifies the meaning of righteousness, and Jesus makes it quite clear that the kingdom of heaven belongs to those who understand God's word to be a living, breathing entity: the love story of the Creator for all of creation. So, "TELLING THE GLORY OF GOD!" What does it mean?
